

Antique Library Table, Victorian Carved Oak, Scottish c.1850

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # LFA-1555 This is a classic example of Scottish Victorian excess in the profuse decoration afforded to this fantastic antique library table, dating to the mid 19th century circa 1850. • In stocks of English oak extensively and expertly carved • Superb colour with a desirable, beautifully aged, patina • Grain interest to the thick top with carved moulded edge detail • Raised on two platforms decorated with carved borders and a robust stretcher • Gaping lion heads guarding each corner with relief foliate detail to the end panels • A pair of classical columns rise supporting the tabletop • Canted frieze decorated with relief carved classical motifs • Pierced carved lion masks to each corner over descending finials • A pair of frieze drawers with green man mask handles A bold piece with huge interest. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed polished and ready for the home.

Search London Fine for #LFA-1555 or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 107cm (42.25")

Max Depth: 75cm (29.5")

Max Height: 78cm (30.75")

