

Antique Corner Armchair, Carved Victorian Chair c.1870

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 12.1560

This is a profusely detailed antique corner armchair, mid Victorian, walnut and dating to circa 1870.

- Raised on four ring turned legs with acanthus leaf collars
- The fluted seat rails punctuated with carved rosettes
- Dressed with shaped, carved pendant swags beneath
- The armrest rises on three columns mirroring the legs beneath
- A pair of beautifully carved splats taking the form of back to back griffins
- Drop in seat panel covered in an oriental printed satin cloth - easily recovered
- The fluted crest rail arcing through 180 degrees, punctuated with carved rosettes
 - Delineated with carved beaded string terminating in rounded grasps and larger rosettes
 - Framed in a collar & hooded detail, an expertly carved cherub mask extends on scrolled brackets

Rare to find such a super example of Victorian excess. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
