

Antique Pembroke Table, Regency, English, c.1820

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 10.1650

This is a superior quality antique Pembroke table, English, from the Regency period in flame mahogany, c.1820.

- Solid mahogany top in first class order
- Displaying grain interest, good colour and a desirable aged patina
- Generous proportions lending itself well as a centre table option
- Supported by a generous turned baluster column
- Raised on four, reeded cabriole legs with Regency scrolled knees and tiered roundel decoration
- Riding upon the original solid brass castors beneath stylised paw, cupped castors
- Field panel table ends featuring a 'blind' drawer to one end
- Twin, shaped flying arms to either side with a smooth hinged action
- Leaves in good order extending the table top as required

An understated and elegant piece. Solid joints and construction. Delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
