

Adjustable Antique Piano Stool, Mahogany, Victorian, English c.1880

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # LFA-1677

This is an adjustable, antique piano stool in mahogany, Victorian, dating to the latter part of the 19th century, English c.1880.

- Beautifully made in solid mahogany with a waxed finish and desirable aged patina
- Raised on a tripod of cabriole legs terminating in scrolled toes
- Well carved acanthus leaves decorating the knees
- Inverted, turned finial beneath bulbous 'squash' baluster column
- Solid brass collar mounting threaded adjustable riser
- Traditionally stuffed, professionally upholstered in a green velour cloth with studded trim

A superior example, comfortable and stable. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
