

Antique Console Table, C19th Scottish Carved Oak

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # LFA-1680

This is an antique console table from the C19th, Scottish with carved oak decoration dating to c.1880.

- A handsome console table displaying good colour and grain interest

Attractive wisps of medullary rays shine through the quality waxed finish

- The top finished with a carved edge detail and backed with a shaped up-stand
- The shaped apron mirrors the up-stand, both beautifully decorated with carved, reciprocating stylised rosettes
- Raised on stout 'ball and reel' turned front legs terminating in pear drop feet
- Typical flat back legs allow for close wall placement
- Shaped stretchers unite the legs each side where carved rosettes decorate the joints

A magnificent piece presented with solid joints and construction. Delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
