

Antique Canterbury Table, English, Regency, Burr Walnut, Circa 1830

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.5044

This is an antique Canterbury table, an English Regency piece in burr walnut dating to circa 1830.

- Classic Regency overtones in this most English of pieces
- The burr walnut displaying good colour and a desirable aged patina
- Book-matched, butterfly quarter veneer to the table top
- Featuring decorative boxwood marquetry inlay to the front
- Three-quarter, pierced gallery running around the back and sides
- Raised on elegant, ring turned risers and offering a stable platform
- The lower Canterbury divided into three
- Division bars raised on a series of ring turned spindles
- Grain interest to the base with a moulded edge detail
- Breakfront enclosing a shaped frieze drawer with turned pulls
- Raised on gadroon capped, turned legs

Search London Fine for #18.5044 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 61cm (24")
 Max Depth: 38cm (15")
 Height: 84.5cm (33.25")
 Plus Gallery: 2cm (.75")

