

Traditional Oriental Rosewood Dining Table and Set of 6 Chairs Carved Late C20th

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 12.1700

This is a traditional, oriental rosewood dining table and set of 6 chairs, a carved suite of fine quality crafted in the late 20th century, c.1980.

- Entirely made from solid, and heavy, rosewood with a hand applied dark cherry finish
- Profusely carved, galleried table base featuring six columns and feet
- Each column guarded by carved dragons with balls in their mouths
- The paw feet supporting a pierced apron
- The five foot diameter table top displaying grain interest
- A protective glass sheet for use if desired
- The apron intricately carved with inter-twining fire-breathing dragons
- The lower edge sinuously shaped, softening the edge detail
- A set of 6 chairs stand upon cabriole legs and paw feet
- Broad seat rails, decorated with pierced carvings support the panelled seat
- Curvaceous form to the stiles and splat

Search London Fine for #12.1700 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Table:

Max Height: 77cm (30.25")

Max Depth: 155cm (61")

Max Width: 155cm (61")

Chairs:

Max Width: 48.25cm (19")

Max Depth: 48.25cm (19")

Max Height: 99cm (39")

Seat Width: 44cm (17.25")

Seat Depth: 40cm (15.75")

Seat Height: 43cm (17")

Additional 4 chairs available here

