

Antique Console Table, English, Mahogany, Regency c.1820

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # LFA-1712

This is an antique console table. An English piece in mahogany and dating to the Regency period of the 19th century, c.1820.

- An attractive hall console table in fine cuts of mahogany
- Good colour with a desirable aged patina
- The top featuring canted corners and ovolo edge moulding
- An overhang extended to the rear for skirting clearance and close wall placement
- The frieze in good proportion with proud corners and centre block
- A pair of mahogany lined, secret, frieze drawers, one to either end
- Raised on classic Regency tapered octagonal legs with ball knees

An attractive and understated table ideal for the hall or drawing room. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
