

19th Century French Louis XVI Revival Two Door Bookcase Vitrine Cabinet, c.1880

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 10.1711

This is a 19th century, French, Louis XVI revival, two-door bookcase, vitrine or cabinet dating to c.1880.

- Hand built to the highest level of craftsmanship
- In mahogany with excellent colour and finish
- Accentuated with bronzed beading and golden highlights
- Raised on tapering circular section legs with bronze toes
- Double field panelled sides rise to a shaped crown moulding in good proportion
- Rounded front corners fluted and highlighted
- A pair of field panel doors lock top and bottom with original lock, key and slide mechanism
- The glazed panels feature the original blown glass that ripple in the light
- A central bronze dust strip closing the cabinet, a real sign of quality
- Inside four fully adjustable shelves
- Edged with twin bronze string detail

Search London Fine for #10.1711 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 150cm (59")
 Max Depth: 56cm (22")
 Max Height: 211cm (83")

LIST PRICE

£3,950.00

