DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.5010

This is an antique set of four dining chairs, English, early Victorian buckle backs in rosewood dating to circa 1840.

- Superior set of four period chairs in rosewood
- Grain interest, of good colour and a desirable aged patina
- Offering a solid, stable and comfortable seat
- Shaped crest rail with carved foliate details
- Scrolled and linked backrest unites the pinched waist
- Cabriole legs with bumped knee, square section, swept rear legs
- Serpentine seat rail and traditional stuff over seat pads
- Upholstery would benefit from recovering but perfectly serviceable 'as is'
- Generous seat height offering comfort

A touch of class in these period, rosewood chairs. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
