

Pair of Antique Chairs, English, Victorian, Dining, Side, Mahogany, Circa 1840

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.5157

This is an antique pair of dining chairs. English early Victorian, mahogany framed dating to the early 19th century circa 1840.

- Generous stocks of mahogany displaying deep, rich tones
- Grain interest and a desirable aged patina in the lustrous wax polished finish
- Humped crest rail and pinched waist with sinuous lines
- Padded splat for added comfort
- Show back finish with matching brocade trim
- Cabriole legs, serpentine seat rail and swept rear legs
- Standing upon blocked scroll feet
- Well sprung and traditionally stuffed offering a comfortable seat
- Stuff over finish with matching brocade trim

Soft velour cloth in good serviceable order - some marks consistent with careful use as seen in images

Search London Fine for #18.5157 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

- Max Width: 48cm (19")
- Max Depth: 55cm (21.75")
- Max Height: 90.5cm (35.75")
- Seat Width: 46cm (18")
- Seat Depth: 43cm (17")
- Seat Height: 48cm (19")

