

Antique Credenza, English Victorian Ebonised Cabinet, Classical Overtones c.1850

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.5022

This is an antique credenza, an English, early Victorian, ebonised cabinet displaying classical overtones dating to the mid 19th century, circa 1850.

- A delightful example with an ebonised finish
- Delineated with golden string details and ormolu bands
- In good proportion and displaying classical overtones
- Turned pulls and lock escutcheons, locks untested as key absent
- Standing upon a shaped, breakfront continuous plinth base
- The quadrant display cabinets feature the original, curved glass doors
- A pair of shelves to each finished in a caramel velour
- A pair of fluted columns flank the central, dome topped cupboard
- The door with central cartouche panel decorated with a vase and spray
- Desirably, the cupboard features the original crimson velour cloth (easy to replace if so desired)

Search London Fine for #18.5022 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 138cm (54.25")

Max Depth: 45.5cm (18")

Max Height: 100.5cm (39.5")

