

French Antique Vanity Table, Jewellery Box, Kingwood, 19th Century, Circa 1880

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.5126

This is a French antique vanity table, a jewellery box table in kingwood dating to the late 19th century, circa 1880.

- The kingwood displaying good colour and grain interest
- Finished in an appealing 'jeux de fond' cube marquetry
- Attractive French styling in good proportion
- The shaped top displays well around a central octagonal cartouche
- Crossbanded frame and trimmed with a brass inlay
- The serpentine apron continuing the cubed theme
- Raised on slender cabriole legs
- Herringbone grained flanking inlaid brass contour
- Capped with ormolu mounts to the feet
- Brass keyhole escutcheon with working lock and key
- Mirror fitted to the inside of the lid that holds up on an adjustable, locking stay

Search London Fine for #18.5126 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 50cm (19.75")

Max Depth: 38cm (15")

Max Height: 75cm (29.5")

