

Antique Pair of Chairs, English, Oak, Dining, Side, Hall, Edwardian Circa 1910

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 11.3370

This is an antique pair of chairs, English oak dining, side or hall chairs dating to the Edwardian era circa 1910.

- Delightfully crafted in English oak
- Displaying grain interest and good colour
- Desirable aged patina throughout
- Wavy line, five bar back splats, flanked by barley twists set in opposing flute
- Serpentine lower rail and the desirable scroll carved crest rail
- Attractive ball finials rise proud of the crest rail
- Barley twist front legs in opposing flute
- Square section rear legs and 'H' stretcher
- Of quality craftsmanship with attractive proportions
- Generous 49cm (19.3") seat height
- Velour seat pads in good order and providing comfortable, supportive seating

Search London Fine for #11.3370 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 48cm (19")
 Max Depth: 47cm (18.5")
 Max Height: 106cm (41.75")
 Seat Width: 46cm (18")
 Seat Depth: 37cm (14.5")
 Seat Height: 49cm (19.25")

