

Antique Wardrobe, English Oak Mirror Door Compactum Gothic Overtones Circa 1910

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # LFA-1520

This is an antique wardrobe, an English oak, mirror door compactum with gothic overtones dating to the early 20th century, circa 1910.

- Attractive honey coloured oak displaying grain interest throughout
- Wisps of medullary rays evident through the lustrous wax polished finish
- Of quality craftsmanship with expertly carved decoration
- Crown moulding with sinuous foliate carved frieze
- Standing upon squat turned legs with bun feet all round
- A full width, fielded, deep lower drawer
- Dressed with brass drop handles
- A central cabinet door with original bevelled mirror plate
- Mirror plate displaying some wear visible as feint streaking
- Complete with working lock and key
- Inside a full width hanging rail with a suite of sliding hooks

Search London Fine for #12.1520 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 129.5cm (51")

Max Depth: 51cm (20")

Max Height: 208.25cm (82")

