

Antique Console Table, Scottish, Oak, Carved, 19th Century Circa 1890

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.5253

This is an antique console table from the 19th century, Scottish oak with carved decoration dating to c.1890.

- A handsome console table displaying good colour throughout
- Well figured with grain interest and wisps of medullary rays
- The top finished with an edge moulding detail and backed with a shaped up-stand
 - The shaped apron mirrors the up-stand, both beautifully decorated with carved, reciprocating stylised rosettes
- Raised on stout 'ball and reel' turned front legs terminating in pear feet
- Typical flat back legs allow for close wall placement
- Of quality craftsmanship and in good order throughout

A magnificent piece presented with solid joints and construction. Delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
