DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 24676

This is a large antique mule chest. An English, carved oak coffer, dating to the late 17th century, circa 1700.

- <li class="p1">Superb chest, with striking William III craftsmanship and generous proportion
- <li class="p1">Displays desirable aged patina and in good order throughout
- <li class="p1">Quality oak stocks present fine grain interest and wisps of medullary rays
- <li class="p1">Graced with deep caramel hues, accentuating the delightful nature of the chest

- <li class="p1">Two-thirds opening top, the whole crafted from a trio of broad planks
- <li class="p1">Folds backwards upon a pair of brass hinges to reveal the pleasingly clean interior
- <li class="p1">Lower frame hosting a pair of useful drawers, dressed with a duet of brass drop handles
- <li class="p1">Antique iron lock escutcheon to upper edge – untested, key absent

<li class="p1">Field panel fascia with three carved foliate scenes, issuing flowerheads and leaves
