

Antique Seven Draw Pocket Telescope, J.B. Dancer, Manchester, Circa 1845

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.5078

This is an antique seven draw pocket telescope by noted Victorian manufacturer, J.B. Dancer Manchester, a refractor for terrestrial or astronomical use dating to the mid 19th century, circa 1845.

Perfect for bird watching, landscape appreciation, wildlife stalking, or maritime observation. Equally suitable for observing the night sky.

- Presenting a clear, sharp optical performance
- Made by noted Victorian manufacturer J.B. Dancer, Manchester
- Inscribed 'J.B. Dancer, Manchester, To adjust by sliding in the second draw'
-

Supplied with a London Fine oak and brass 'Captain's Stand' for display

- Parallel, leather clad, primary barrel in good order
- Withdraws with a smooth action, easy to focus
- Four lens eyepiece and flared eyecup
- 34mm (1.25") achromatic, objective lens with lens cap

Search London Fine for #18.5078, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Closed Length: 13cm (5")

Fully Drawn Length: 59.5cm (23.5")

Objective Glass Diameter: 34mm (1.25")

Find out more about J.B. Dancer, Manchester here...

