

Antique Cylindrical Stick Stand, English, Oak, Reception, Umbrella, Edwardian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 24824

This is an antique cylindrical stick stand. An English, oak and bergère reception hall umbrella bin, dating to the Edwardian period, circa 1910.

- <li class="p1">Presenting a most wonderful form, with great proportion and finish
- <li class="p1">Displays a desirable aged patina, lightly time worn but intact
- <li class="p1">Oak frame presents fine grain interest and deep caramel hues
- <li class="p1">Quality bergère accentuates a trio of fascia, intersected with striking barley twists
- <li class="p1">Removable line with a pair of handles, useful for removing rain water
- <li class="p1">Standing upon a set of three squat bun feet

This is a fine antique cylindrical stick stand, with a wonderful appearance and useful size. Ideal for the entrance hall or hotel foyer. Delivered ready for the home or institution.

Search London Fine for #24824 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

- Max Width: 34cm (13.5")
- Max Depth: 35cm (13.75")
- Max Height: 74.5cm (29.25")
- Liner Diameter: 22.5cm (8.75")

LIST PRICE

£1,195.00

