

3vols Antique Reference Books, English Furniture of the 18th Century,
Cescinsky

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 24698
This is an antique 3 volume set of reference books - English Furniture of the Eighteenth Century, by Herbert Cescinsky. Published circa 1920.

- <li class="p1">Fascinating guide to the craft and aesthetic of English furniture in the 1700s
- <li class="p1">Displaying a desirable, lightly time worn patina throughout each volume
- <li class="p1">Bound with cloth over board and dressed with a ribbed leather spine
- <li class="p1">Title, author and volume laid upon the spine with gilt titling
- <li class="p1">Printed across the three volumes on 385, 382 and 384 pages respectively
- <li class="p1">Illustrated with drawings by the author and reproductions of photographs

This is an informative 3 book set of antique reference to English Furniture in the Eighteenth Century, with a lightly aged condition, but as useful now as when published 100 years ago. Delivered ready to enjoy.

Search London Fine for #24698 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 25.5cm (10")
Max Depth: 3.5cm (1.5")
Max Height: 31.5cm (12.5")

LIST PRICE

£295.00

