

Antique Captain's Desk Chair, English, Elm, Smoker's Bow, Elbow Seat, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 24961

This is an antique captain's desk chair. An English, elm and beech smoker's bow or elbow seat, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1880.

- Classic bow form ideal for pairing with a correspondence table
- Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good order
- Select elm and beech stocks show fascinating grain interest throughout
- Graced with warm caramel hues across the attractive form
- The bowed crest rail gently chamfered to the trailing edge
- Ring turned spindles rise obliquely supporting the striking horseshoe armrest
- The arms terminating in scrolled hand grips
- Standing upon a quartet of turned baluster legs and united by a 'H' stretcher

This is a delightful antique captain's desk chair, with beautiful colour and quality craftsmanship. Solid joints and construction, delivered ready for the home.
