

Antique Embroidered Chair, English, Walnut, Needlepoint, Bedroom, Hall, Regency

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25048

This is an antique embroidered lyre back chair. An English, walnut and needlepoint bedroom or hall seat, dating to the Regency period, circa 1820.

- Endearing needlepoint covering and a fascinating frame accentuate this fine seat
- Displays a desirable aged patina and in good order throughout
- Walnut frame presents fine grain interest and rich caramel hues
- Traditionally stuffed cushion with embroidered covering
- Shaped crest rail with gadrooned finish and flame mahogany frieze
- Delightful lyre back splat with flowerhead patera motif
- Superb technique to the needlepoint, with a finer thread used for the central interest
- Raised upon turned front legs, united to the splayed rear legs with an X-stretcher

This is an appealing antique embroidered lyre back chair, with a superb needlepoint cushion and wonderful Regency craftsmanship to the back rest. Solid joints and construction, delivered ready for the home.
