

Antique Cocktail Service Stand, English, Walnut, Canterbury, Whatnot, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25202

This is an antique cocktail service stand. An English, walnut Canterbury or whatnot, dating to the early Victorian period, circa 1840.

- Exceptional drawing room appeal, with striking decorative craftsmanship
- Displaying a desirable aged patina and in very good order
- Quality walnut stocks present superb grain interest
- Graced with rich caramel hues throughout
- Gallery top enclosed with attractive pierced fretwork
- Oval form with dashing barley twist supports
- Generous bottle rack within, ideal storage for multiple wines and spirits
- Small drawer to the base, with room for bottle openers and other accessories
- Riding smoothly upon a quartet of brass castors beneath short turned legs

Search London Fine for #25202 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 60.5cm (23.75")

Max Depth: 45.5cm (18")

Max Height: 101cm (39.75")

