

Antique Regency 3 Drawer English Desktop Collector Case, Satinwood Cigar Humidor

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25151

A refined Regency period desktop collector's case, crafted in exquisite satinwood, dating to circa 1820. This distinguished three-drawer cigar humidor showcases elegant proportion, superb craftsmanship, and rich figuring.

<li class="p1">Fine Regency craftsmanship – A superior example of early 19th century English cabinet work

<li class="p1">Exceptional satinwood stocks – Displaying beautiful caramel hues and striking grain figuring

<li class="p1">Three-drawer configuration – Designed for cigar storage, now offering versatile collector's use

<li class="p1">Patinated brass hardware – Featuring recessed engraved brass handles to the sides

<li class="p1">Central locking mechanism – With original lock, key absent

<li class="p1">Elegant green-lined interiors – A subtle contrast to the warm satinwood tones

<li class="p1">Compact and decorative – Ideal for use as a collector's case, jewellery box, or as a small desk organizer

<li class="p1">Displays a desirable aged patina, with light green-lined interiors and a central locking mechanism. Search London Fine for #25151 or scan the QR code for more photos and details
