

Antique Lidded Waste Bin, Georgian, Dutch, Oak, Fruitwood, Fireside Store C.1800

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25295

This is a fine antique Georgian period lidded waste bin, presenting as a distinguished Dutch fireside store in oak and fruitwood, circa 1800. This versatile antique is ideal for use as an elegant waste paper bin or refined fireside fuel store, bringing period charm to any setting.

- <li class="p1">Handsome Georgian lidded bin, perfect for home office or fireside use
- <li class="p1">Rich oak and fruitwood construction, showcasing a deep caramel hue
- <li class="p1">Removable tin liner for effortless clearing and practicality
- <li class="p1">Tapering profile accentuated by decorative willow banding
- <li class="p1">Striking lid handle distinguished with ornate fretwork grasps
- <li class="p1">Inset side handles, designed for ease of movement throughout the home

This is a beautifully crafted antique lidded waste bin, offering both functionality and timeless elegance. Perfect for collectors of Georgian furniture, period interiors, or those seeking unique, heritage-inspired décor.

Search London Fine for #25295 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 35cm (13.75")
 Max Depth: 24cm (9.5")
 Max Height: 35cm (13.75")
 Liner Height: 23.5cm (9.25")

LIST PRICE

£895.00

