

Large Antique Cooped Barrel Stick Stand, Early Victorian, Oak, Umbrella, 1850

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 24998

This is a charming early Victorian stick stand, offering classic country house appeal, circa 1850. Crafted with coopered oak staves and iron strap binding, this substantial umbrella stand or fireside store boasts a rich, time-worn character.

<li class="p1">Traditional coopered barrel form, perfect for umbrellas, canes, or fireside storage

<li class="p1">Handsome oak staves, secured with bound iron straps for enduring strength

<li class="p1">Unusual front and rear drop handles, adding to its decorative and practical charm

<li class="p1">Engraved L.B. monogram to both fascia, enhancing its heritage appeal

<li class="p1">Deep chestnut hue, presenting a warm, inviting patina

<li class="p1">Displays beautifully with Victorian period elegance and country house character

This is a superb antique umbrella stand, ideal for hallways, boot rooms, or fireside storage, appealing to collectors of Victorian furniture and those with a taste for timeless, rustic decor

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 53cm (20.75")

Max Depth: 41.5cm (16.25")

Max Height: 56cm (22")

LIST PRICE

£1,295.00

