

Antique Shooting Lodge Dinner Gong, Victorian, Scottish Brass Chime, Oak, C.1880

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25223

This is a distinguished late Victorian dinner gong, evoking the grandeur of a Scottish Highland country estate, circa 1880. This superb antique chime features a brass deer's head mount, antler supports, and a resonant gong, making it a striking porch or dining room statement piece.

- <li class="p1">Authentic shooting lodge dinner gong, rich with Highland country house character
- <li class="p1">Displays beautifully with Victorian sporting elegance and refined craftsmanship
- <li class="p1">Brass deer's head trophy mount, finely cast with superb detailing
- <li class="p1">Ornamental antlers, supporting the gong with traditional leather straps

- <li class="p1">Substantial brass gong, producing a deep, resonant chime
- <li class="p1">Cork-topped striker, designed for a clear, reverberating tone
- <li class="p1">Handsome oak backing, complementing the warm patina of the brass

This is a superb antique shoot lodge gong, perfect for collectors of country house antiques, lovers of sporting heritage, or those seeking a unique decorative accent for their home. Delivered ready for the home.

+44 (0) 207 1833 511
Search London Fine for #25223, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

- Max Width: 25cm (9.75")
- Max Depth: 13cm (5")
- Max Height: 47cm (18.5")
- Gong Diameter: 25cm (9.75")
- Mount Diameter: 20cm (7.75")
- Striker Diameter Width: 6cm (2.25")
- Striker Diameter Height: 27cm (10.75")

LIST PRICE

£895.00

