

Antique Shooting Lodge Dinner Gong, Victorian, Scottish Brass Chime, Oak, C.1880

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25223

This is a distinguished late Victorian dinner gong, evoking the grandeur of a Scottish Highland country estate, circa 1880. This superb antique chime features a brass deer's head mount, antler supports, and a resonant gong, making it a striking porch or dining room statement piece.

- Authentic shooting lodge dinner gong, rich with Highland country house character
- Displays beautifully with Victorian sporting elegance and refined craftsmanship
- Brass deer's head trophy mount, finely cast with superb detailing
- Ornamental antlers, supporting the gong with traditional leather straps
- Substantial brass gong, producing a deep, resonant chime
- Cork-topped striker, designed for a clear, reverberating tone
- Handsome oak backing, complementing the warm patina of the brass

This is a superb antique shoot lodge gong, perfect for collectors of country house antiques, lovers of sporting heritage, or those seeking a unique decorative accent for their home. Delivered ready for the home.
