

Pair of Antique Carved Lion Bookends, English Pine, Georgian Revival, Edwardian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25288

This is a distinctive pair of antique carved lion bookends. An English pine book rest presented in Georgian revival taste, dating to the Edwardian period, circa 1910. A charming and robust set, with wonderfully naive appeal.

- Hand-carved lion head motif, delightfully naive in execution with bold 18th century estate-made character
- Crafted from select pine stocks, showing fine grain interest and warm caramel tones throughout
- Richly patinated finish, offering visual depth and period authenticity
- Strong, weighty form makes them ideal for supporting a range of books or display pieces
- Dressed to the base with protective cushion pads, safeguarding surfaces beneath
- A unique decorative pair, ideal for use in a country house library, study or interior setting

This is a charming pair of Edwardian lion bookends, showcasing Georgian revival craftsmanship and rustic elegance. A fine decorative addition for collectors, interior stylists, or lovers of period English design. Delivered ready to enjoy.
