

Antique Porcelain Corner Display Cabinet, English, Chippendale Taste, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25384

This is a tall antique porcelain display cabinet. An English, walnut and mahogany glazed corner cupboard in Chippendale taste, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1860. A refined example of period craftsmanship, this elegant piece offers superb display quality and distinguished appeal.

- Of fine Victorian craftsmanship, with Chippendale revival influences throughout
- Handsome walnut and mahogany stocks, displaying rich caramel hues and striking grain interest
- Astragal glazed door presents with beautifully aged glass, clear and bright to showcase contents
- Interior lined in original velvet cloth, adding luxurious contrast to displayed porcelain or glassware
- Three serpentine-shaped shelves, trimmed with a dashing gilt edge for added visual finesse
- Door fitted with an inset working lock, complete with the original key
- Pierced fretwork decoration enhances the cabinet's under-tier and distinctive tripod base

DIMENSIONS

- Max Width: 79.5cm (31.25")
- Max Depth: 38cm (15")
- Max Height: 197.5cm (77.75")
- Min Shelf Height: 27cm (10.75")
- Max Shelf Height: 31cm (12.25")
- Under Tier Height: 39.5cm (15.5")

LIST PRICE

£4,950.00

• Excellent corner proportions, ideal for drawing rooms, reception halls or collectors' studies

0207 1833 511

A delightfully elegant Victorian display cabinet, with striking form and purposeful function ...

London Fine Ltd
The Antique Village
The Old Whiteways Cider Factory
Hele, Devon, EX5 4PW

sales@londonfine.co.uk
E. & O. E.