

3 Vols British Battles on Land and Sea, Antique, Military Reference Book, C.1900

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25194

This is an antique set of three volumes of 'British Battles on Land and Sea' by James Grant. An English, illustrated military reference series in intact, original order with light, characterful markings, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900. A superb addition for collectors of military history or decorative antique libraries.

- Bound in their original cloth covers, presenting with appealing aged tonality and authentic period character
- Richly illustrated throughout, with detailed depictions of key battles and military figures
- Pages remain intact and clear, with only light markings in keeping with age and careful handling
- Covers an expansive array of British military history, across notable land and sea campaigns
- Published in English across 300, 276 and 276 pages respectively

• Attractive spines with embossed gilt titling, offering a distinguished appearance on the bookshelf

• Authored by the respected James Grant (1822-1887), celebrated for his military novels and histories

• Perfect for study rooms, drawing room libraries, or collector's bookshelves

DIMENSIONS

Vol 1 Width: 19.5cm (7.75")

Vol 1 Depth: 2.5cm (1")

Vol 1 Height: 26.5cm (10.5")

LIST PRICE

£195.00

Search London Fine for #25194 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

London Fine Ltd
The Antique Village
The Old Whiteways Cider Factory
Hele, Devon, EX5 4PW

sales@londonfine.co.uk
E. & O. E.