

6 Vols British Birds and Their Nests, Butler, Avian Reference Book, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25268

This is a superb antique set of six volumes of 'British Birds with their Eggs and Nests', authored by Arthur G. Butler and illustrated by F.W. Prohawk and dating to the late Victorian period. A charming collection of bound and illustrated avian reference books, presented in intact, original order with delightful light markings consistent with careful use.

<li class="p1">Complete six volume set, offering an expansive study of Britain's native bird species and their habitats

<li class="p1">Published in English across 208, 192, 175, 219, 178 and 252 pages respectively

<li class="p1">Beautifully illustrated throughout with detailed colour studies by the accomplished artist F.W. Prohawk

<li class="p1">Original binding, displaying gentle ageing and light shelf wear, adding to their period authenticity

<li class="p1">Pages clean and bright, with occasional light markings appropriate to vintage reference works

<li class="p1">Informative descriptions paired with exquisite illustrations of birds, nests and eggs

<li class="p1">44 (3) 207 1833 511 Arthur Gardiner Butler (1844–1926) London Fine Ltd British zoologist and ornithologist

<li class="p1">Ideal for nature enthusiasts, collect ... The Old Whiteways Cider Factory Hele, Devon, EX5 4PW

DIMENSIONS

Vol 6 Width: 26.5cm (10.5")

Vol 6 Depth: 3.5cm (1.5")

Vol 6 Height: 32.5cm (12.75")

LIST PRICE

£445.00

sales@londonfine.co.uk

E. & O. E.