

Antique Tallboy Correspondence Desk, French, Kingwood, Escritoire, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25341

This is an antique tallboy correspondence desk. A French, drawing room escriptoire in bookmatched kingwood, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900. A statement in both form and function, this fine cabinet exudes elegance and exceptional craftsmanship.

<li class="p1">Superb French craftsmanship, with exquisite bookmatched kingwood throughout

<li class="p1">Fall front desk, beautifully disguised as a faux drawer fascia, forming a practical writing surface

<li class="p1">Original tooled leather skiver in good order, positioned at a comfortable writing height of 72cm

<li class="p1">Striking satinwood interior, hosting a suite of smaller drawers, the central drawer fitted with a sliding divider

<li class="p1">Five useful drawers with quality oak and mahogany boxes, and hand-cut dovetail joints

<li class="p1">Fall front dressed with a brass lined lock – in working order, key present

<li class="p1">Refined pilaster detail, framing the elegant run of drawer fronts

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 85.5cm (33.75")

Max Depth: 43.5cm (17.25")

Max Height: 143.5cm (56.5")

Open Depth: 83cm (32.75")

Open Height: 72cm (28.25")

Skiver Width: 55cm (21.75")

Skiver Depth: 44cm (17.25")

LIST PRICE

£7,850.00

<li class="p1">Decorative relief carvings to the upper corners, offering superb grain and a warm, caramel hues

<li class="p1">Decorative relief carvings to the upper corners, offering superb grain and a warm, caramel hues

sales@londonfine.co.uk

E. & O. E.

The Antique Village
The Old Whipways Cider Factory
Hele, Devon, EX5 4PW