

Antique Ornate Stick Stand, English, Umbrella Loop, Victorian, Jacobean Taste

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25171

This is an antique ornate stick stand. An English, cast iron umbrella loop, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1880. A wonderfully decorative and practical hallway piece with delightful form and Jacobean revival overtones.

<li class="p1">Beautiful cast iron frame, with fine pierced detail and flowing serpentine curves

<li class="p1">Distinctive stick loop offers stable containment for umbrellas, canes or walking sticks

<li class="p1">Attractive graphite finish, consistent throughout with a gently time-worn patina

<li class="p1">Removable drip tray to the base, for ease of maintenance and tidy presentation

<li class="p1">Eye-catching pine cone motif to the front feet, adding an organic touch to the classic Victorian design

<li class="p1">Superb open fretwork fascia, adding both visual lightness and decorative charm

<li class="p1">Presents fine proportion and enduring build quality – ideal for entrance halls or vestibules
