

Antique Ornate Stick Stand, English, Umbrella Loop, Victorian, Jacobean Taste

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25171

This is an antique ornate stick stand. An English, cast iron umbrella loop, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1880. A wonderfully decorative and practical hallway piece with delightful form and Jacobean revival overtones.

- Beautiful cast iron frame, with fine pierced detail and flowing serpentine curves
- Distinctive stick loop offers stable containment for umbrellas, canes or walking sticks
- Attractive graphite finish, consistent throughout with a gently time-worn patina
- Removable drip tray to the base, for ease of maintenance and tidy presentation
- Eye-catching pine cone motif to the front feet, adding an organic touch to the classic Victorian design
- Superb open fretwork fascia, adding both visual lightness and decorative charm
- Presents fine proportion and enduring build quality – ideal for entrance halls or vestibules
- Drip tray base replete with a Registered Design diamond mark

This antique ornate stick stand is an excellent example of decorative utility, with striking form and excellent period charm – a perfect addition to the refined traditional home
