

Antique Mr Punch Doorstop, English, Cast Iron, Figural Door Keeper, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25195

This is a delightful antique Mr Punch doorstop. An English, cast iron figural door keeper, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1880. A charming representation of the iconic puppet character, offering superb decorative and practical appeal.

- Excellent cast figure with high definition detail and bold character expression
- Depicts the classic Mr Punch in traditional attire - a whimsical nod to Victorian entertainment
- Crafted in quality cast iron, presenting a fine graphite finish throughout
- Mr. Punch sits atop a pile of books, a faithful dog by his side
- Slyly, the figure is shown 'cocking a snook' with his left hand against his nose
- Dressed in fine robes, his right hand holding a feathered quill and piece of paper
- Late Victorian 'diamond' registered design mark visible to paper
- Appealing weight in the hand at 3.126kg (6.89 lb), well-suited for holding interior or exterior doors
- Flat rear profile for close placement against door or wall
