

Antique Galleried Ships Decanter, English Cut Glass, Spirit Vessel, Edwardian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25308

This is an appealing antique galleried ships decanter. An English, beech and cut glass spirit vessel, dating to the Edwardian period, circa 1910. Originally crafted for maritime use, this distinctive piece offers both function and decorative charm.

- Charming galleried decanter, ideal for display or serving fine spirits
- Crafted for seafaring stability, with a bulbous form that moves with the ship's motion
- Superb cut crystal glass, boasting excellent clarity and a bright, clean appearance
- Profusely decorated with a classic diamond cut pattern for light-catching brilliance
- Presented within a turned beech stand, offering a warm, traditional tone
- Green baize cushion lines the base, both decorative and protective
- Lightly aged with gentle character, commensurate with age and careful use
- A fine addition to a gentleman's bar, nautical collection, or antique drinks cabinet

This antique galleried ships decanter is a tactile and historically interesting example, perfect for those with a taste for maritime antiques or Edwardian refinement. Delivered ready for the home.
