

Vintage Occasional Table, Oriental, Chippendale Revival, Lamp, Side, Circa 1970

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25349
This is a charming vintage occasional table. An Oriental, mahogany lamp or side table in Chippendale revival taste, dating to the late 20th century, circa 1970. With ornate craftsmanship and timeless elegance, this decorative piece enhances any traditional interior.

- <li class="p1">Quality revival piece, crafted with keen attention to Chippendale period detail
- <li class="p1">Select mahogany stocks display deep caramel hues and fine grain interest
- <li class="p1">Pierced fretwork gallery surrounds the tabletop, lending delicate visual appeal
- <li class="p1">Shaped apron further embellished with fretwork patterning, echoing classic Georgian form

- <li class="p1">Features a sliding pull-out plinth, neatly concealed within the front fascia and finished with a small brass pull
- <li class="p1">Stands upon a quartet of fascinating column legs, with pronounced block shoulders and square toes
- <li class="p1">Each leg united by a serpentine stretcher, converging centrally on an elegant turned finial

44 (3) 207 183 511
This lamp table, side table, or hallway accent table is a delightfully ornate revival piece, offering both function and style.

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 33.5cm (13.25")
Max Depth: 33.5cm (13.25")
Max Height: 67.5cm (26.5")

LIST PRICE

£1,295.00

