

Antique Dining Chair Suite, English, Carver & Slipper Chairs, Georgian, C.1800

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25393

This is a fine antique dining chair suite. An English, mahogany carver and chair set in Hepplewhite taste, dating to the Georgian period, circa 1800. Exuding refined elegance, this six-piece set combines quality materials, period craftsmanship and distinctive decorative appeal.

- Presents as a suite of six - two elegant carver armchairs and four slipper chairs
- Crafted in select mahogany, offering rich caramel tones and fine grain interest throughout
- Superb Hepplewhite influenced design, characterised by classic shield backs and neoclassical motifs
- Tastefully upholstered in champagne coloured textile, traditionally stuffed for comfort and support
- Carver chairs hosting wheatsheaf forms to the shield backrest
- Serpentine arms with rakish supports adorned with carved flowerhead rosettes
- Slipper chairs with sash garland embellishments across their distinctive shield-shaped backrests
