

Antique Book, Pendennis, William Thackeray, Novel, Fiction, Edwardian, C.1908

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25356

This is a delightful antique edition of Pendennis, the classic novel by celebrated English author William Makepeace Thackeray. An illustrated, bound volume, retaining its original form with appealing provenance — gifted as a school prize at Queen's College, Taunton in 1912.

- Bound fiction volume in intact, original condition with gentle age-commensurate markings
- Authored and illustrated throughout by Thackeray, offering insight into his visual as well as literary style
- Features a charming prize label to the inside cover, awarded at Queen's College, Taunton, dated 1912
- Presented across 850 pages, richly detailed with black and white illustrations, adding depth to the narrative
- A fine example of Edwardian educational tradition and classic English literature
- This example published by MacMillan & Co, London in 1908
- Decorative spine and boards, presenting well within a period bookcase or library display

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 13.5cm (5.25")

Max Depth: 4cm (1.5")

Max Height: 19cm (7.5")

LIST PRICE

£395.00

This edition of Pendennis is a handsome and characterful example of early 20th century literature, collectible for lovers of Thackeray's works. Delivered ready to enjoy.

The Antique Village
The Old Whiteways Cider Factory
Hele, Devon, EX5 4PW

sales@londonfine.co.uk

E. & O. E.

Search London Fine for #25356, or scan the QR code for more photos and details.