

Antique Occasional Table, French, Centre, Writing Desk, Victorian, Circa 1850

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25333

This is a superb antique occasional table. A French, mahogany centre table or desk, dating to the early Victorian period, circa 1850. Boasting an elegant form, exquisite carved detail, and fine grain interest – ideal as a central feature or a characterful writing table.

<li class="p1">French occasional or writing table of generous proportion and timeless appeal

<li class="p1">Crafted in mahogany, displaying fine grain interest and deep caramel hues

<li class="p1">Beautifully presented for central room placement or as an occasional writing desk

<li class="p1">Wax polished for a desirable sheen, commensurate with careful antique use

<li class="p1">Finely figured tabletop with attractive natural patterning

<li class="p1">Serpentine apron adorned with relief carved scroll shell motif

<li class="p1">Concealed drawer to one end, opening smoothly from the apron

<li class="p1">Raised upon a graceful quartet of cabriole legs, with subtle knee and toe carvings

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 101.5cm (40")

Max Depth: 61.5cm (24.25")

Max Height: 70cm (27.5")

Kneehole Width: 79cm (31")

Kneehole Height: 59cm (23.25")

End Kneehole Width: 38cm (15")

End Kneehole Height: 59cm (23.25")

LIST PRICE

£1,795.00

This is a striking example of mid 19th century French furniture, exuding presence and classical refinement. Perfect for the Antique Village of Continental flair within a traditional or eclectic interior.

Search London Fine for #25333, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

London Fine Ltd
The Antique Village
The Old Whiteways Cider Factory
Hele, Devon, EX5 4PW

sales@londonfine.co.uk
E. & O. E.