

Set of 4 Antique Station Chairs, English, Country House Kitchen, Seat, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25397

This is a delightful set of 4 antique station chairs. An English, beech and elm country kitchen seat, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1870. Brimming with rustic charm and traditional appeal, ideal for a country kitchen, hallway or dining setting.

- Charming country house craftsmanship, exuding Victorian character
- Quality beech and elm stocks, offering excellent grain interest and deep caramel tones
- Elegant bowed crest rail with a central spade-shaped back splat, flanked by four turned spindles
- Comfortable, shaped seat squabs with a gently worn patina, commensurate with age
- Raised upon a quartet of splayed legs, finished with turned detail for added visual appeal
- Robustly united by a traditional H-stretcher arrangement for enhanced stability
- Ideal as dining chairs, kitchen seating or decorative occasional chairs

This is a wonderfully rustic and timeless Victorian station chair set, ready to grace any country interior with heritage charm. Solid joints and construction delivered ready for the home.
