

Antique Corinthian Console Table, English Pine, Marble, Hallway Stand, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25173

This is a charming antique Corinthian console table. An English, hallway or portico stand with a classic architectural aesthetic, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1880. In original condition with light time-worn appeal, this portico stand brings enduring elegance to entrance halls or refined interior settings.

- Attractive hallway or portico stand inspired by the Corinthian order of classical architecture
- Beautiful white marble plinth top, displaying cool tones and natural veining
- Supported by a pair of fluted half columns, adding balance and decorative impact
- Crafted in painted pine, showing subtle aged tones and patina from years of use
- Resting upon a shaped plinth base for a grounded and stable presence
- Fitted with a mounting loop to the rear, offering secure wall attachment
- Presents in original, lightly time-worn condition, enhancing its antique charm

A fine example of Victorian architectural revival taste, this antique Corinthian console table offers refined proportion and timeless appeal for the discerning collector or decorator. Solid joints and construction, delivered ready for the home.
