

Antique Corinthian Console Table, English Pine, Marble, Hallway Stand, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25173

This is a charming antique Corinthian console table. An English, hallway or portico stand with a classic architectural aesthetic, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1880. In original condition with light time-worn appeal, this portico stand brings enduring elegance to entrance halls or refined interior settings.

class="p1">Attractive hallway or portico stand inspired by the Corinthian order of classical architecture

- class="p1">Beautiful white marble plinth top, displaying cool tones and natural veining
- class="p1">Supported by a pair of fluted half columns, adding balance and decorative impact
- class="p1">Crafted in painted pine, showing subtle aged tones and patina from years of use
- class="p1">Resting upon a shaped plinth base for a grounded and stable presence class="p1">Fitted with a mounting loop to the rear, offering secure wall attachment class="p1">Presents in original, lightly time-worn condition, enhancing its antique charm

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 81cm (32") Max Depth: 27cm (10.75") Max Height: 109.5cm (43")

LIST PRICE

£895.00

