

Antique Campaign Mess Table, English, Walnut, Oval, Occasional, Victorian, 1900

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25396

This is an antique campaign mess table. An English, walnut oval folding table with Naval influence, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900. A superb example of portable craftsmanship, rich with maritime heritage and character.

- Fine Victorian campaign table in walnut, with warm caramel hues and appealing grain

- Presents in good antique order, with lightly timeworn charm commensurate with age
- Striking oval top, centred with a relief carved medallion of exceptional detail

- Medallion bears Sir Walter Raleigh's family motto, encircling a knight's helmet

Amore et Virtute translates to English as 'By Love and Valour'

- Raleigh (1552-1618) is to this day associated with the Royal Navy, with his eponymous training base in Cornwall, UK

- Table edge decorated with a chased foliate border, adding distinguished visual impact

- Standing upon four turned legs with a tapering cupped stretcher — removable for ease of transit
