

Small Antique Campaign Tea Table, Anglo-Indian, Relief Carved Teak, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25429

This is a small antique campaign tea table. An Anglo-Indian folding piece in richly carved teak, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900. Elegant and practical, this petite octagonal table offers both decorative charm and portability.

- Delightful late Victorian campaign table with folding form for ease of storage
- Crafted from select teak stocks, showing warm tones and fine grain interest
 - Octagonal top adorned with a central leaf motif, issuing a grapevine pattern throughout
 - Each of the eight fascia panels repeats the ornate grape and leaf relief carving
- Raised upon a traditional folding base, displaying pierced geometric fretwork
- Profusely carved throughout, presenting superb Oriental craftsmanship
- Ideal as a tea table, lamp stand or occasional centrepiece in any classic or bohemian interior

This is a charming and compact antique Anglo-Indian tea table, sure to enhance any room with its hand-carved quality and campaign character. Solid joints and construction, delivered ready for the home
