

Antique Courtyard Light, English, Bronze, Wrought Iron, Carriage Lamp, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25402

This is a large antique courtyard light. An English, bronze and wrought iron carriage lamp, dating to the early Victorian period, circa 1850. With timeless character and period appeal, this superb lamp makes a striking statement in any exterior or interior setting.

- Delightful Victorian craftsmanship, presenting a distinctive and characterful silhouette
- Patinated bronze case offering rich, aged tones, beautifully enhanced with frosted glass panes
- Copper reflector within the lamp body amplifies and softens the warm glow
- Suspended upon a quality wrought iron bracket, perfect for wall mounting in entranceways or courtyards
- Supplied with a generous length of quality cable, offering installation flexibility
- Fitted with a British Standards compliant 3-pin plug, ready for immediate use
- Presents a pleasing, ambient light, perfect for creating a welcoming atmosphere outdoors
- A substantial and rare find for heritage properties, garden rooms or converted stables

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 28cm (11")
Max Depth: 27.5cm (10.75")
Hanging Height: 91.5cm (36")

