

Pair Of Vintage Display Vases, English, Ceramic Flower Urn, Potteries, C.1970

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25366

This is a pair of vintage display vases. An English, ceramic flower urn with figural decoration, dating to the late 20th century, circa 1970. Delightfully presented with classic blue and white finish and charming detail.

- Appealing urn form, ideal for floral displays or decorative shelving
- Finished in quintessential blue and white palette, evoking traditional ceramics
- Gilt painted accents to the rim and foot add a touch of refined elegance
- Each vase hosts a figural scene, with a pair of young girls – one whispering softly into the other's ear

- Reverse side decorated with a whimsical Oriental influenced forest landscape
- Crafted in ceramic with a lightly time-worn finish, in good vintage order throughout
- Maker's mark to base for Lord Nelson Ware of Staffordshire
- A delightful decorative duo, sure to bring charm and conversation to any setting

This pair of vintage English ceramic vases blend figural storytelling with classical design – a captivating pair for display in the home or curated collection.
