

Small Antique Zanzibar Chest, East African Teak, Brass, Travel Trunk, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25431

This is a small antique Zanzibar chest. An East African travel trunk in solid teak and brass, dating to the early Victorian period, circa 1850. A petite yet striking example, exhibiting quality craftsmanship and exotic appeal.

- Fine East African craftsmanship with solid, three-quarter inch teak stocks
 - Displays a rich caramel hue and fine grain interest, lightly timeworn with characterful patina
 - Profusely adorned with brass cappings, corner straps and studwork – bold decorative detailing
- Brass drop handles to each end for ease of lifting and carriage
- Inset lock to fascia, key absent, with a smooth-operating hinged lid
- Interior presents in a pleasingly clean condition, ideal for use or display
- Compact form makes it an excellent hallway chest or decorative storage piece

This charming Victorian Zanzibar chest delights with its nautical utility and ornamental allure – a refined accent for interiors embracing world travel or colonial styling. Solid joints and construction, delivered ready for the home
