DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 25417

This is a charming antique tea fancies stand. An English, walnut and beadwork raised cake platter, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1860. A delightful addition to the tea table, combining tactile craftsmanship with a visual feast.

- Superb Victorian tea fancies stand, ideal for afternoon tea or confection display
- Crafted from select walnut, displaying fine grain interest and rich caramel tones
- Eye-catching beadwork and embroidery to the top, presenting exquisite handmade quality
- Some minor bead loss commensurate with age and gentle use
- Decorative surface arranged in an elegant ivy green and cream colour palette
- Raised upon six squat bun feet, offering an elevated and stable platform
- A fine example of Victorian taste with enduring decorative appeal

This antique cake platter is an excellent choice for collectors of decorative arts or those seeking a period flourish for elegant table settings. A unique and tactile piece, sure to charm at any occasion. Delivered ready for the home.
